NEWS RELEASE

United States Attorney Laurie Magid today announced the filing of a seventeen-count second superseding indictment¹ charging Sean O’Neill with immigration and illegal possession of unregistered silencer charges. O’Neill was previously charged in a fifteen-count indictment. This second superseding indictment adds an additional count of use of a fraudulently obtained alien registration receipt card and an additional count of false claim of United States citizenship in addition to supplementing the allegations as to the basis upon which O’Neill originally obtained his alien registration receipt card.

O'Neill faces a maximum sentence of 146 years imprisonment, three years supervised release, and a $4 million fine.
